The book, 'WINONA LADUKE CHRONICLE,' by Winona LaDuke
Stories from the Front Lines in the Battle for Environmental Justice will be here in January 2016.

Chronicles is a major work, a collection of current, pressing and inspirational stories of Indigenous communities from the Canadian subarctic to the heart of Dine Bii Kaya, Navajo Nation. Chronicles is a book literally risen from the ashes-beginning in 2008 after her home burned to the ground-and collectively is an accounting of Winona's personal path of recovery, finding strength and resilience in the writing itself as well as in her work.

Long awaited, Chronicles is a labor of love, a tribute to those who have passed on and those yet to arrive.

"In the North American first world, tribal communities and first nations struggle just to survive. In our resilience and beauty, these stories are inspired," LaDuke explains.
